Hon. Jennifer H. Rearden, U.S.D.J.
United States District Court
Southern District of New York

New York, New York 10007

RE: Trustees of the New York City District Council of Carpenters Pension Fund, et al., v. Envision Design Construction Corp., 24 CV 7141 (JHR)

Dear Judge Rearden:

This firm represents the Petitioners in the above-referenced action. Petitioners write to request an extension of time through January 30, 2025, to serve Respondent with the pleadings in the above-referenced action. Further, we write to request leave to serve the pleadings on Respondent via “nail and mail” service.

Since the commencement of this action, Petitioners have attempted to personally serve the pleadings on Respondent at various addresses, as set forth in detail below, however, all service attempts have been unsuccessful. Furthermore, absences by this firm’s staff for the holiday season resulted in an inadvertent oversight of the December 19, 2024 deadline to serve process on Respondent pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m). Petitioners sincerely apologize for this oversight and, for the reasons set forth below, request a retroactive six-week extension of time through January 30, 2025, to serve the Respondent. Given what appears to be evasion on the part of the Respondent, we request leave to serve Respondent via service by “nail and mail” service at its last known business address and upon its President’s last known residence. This is the first such request for an extension of time to serve Respondent.

Attempts to Personally Serve Respondent

This action was commenced on September 20, 2024, with the filing of a verified petition to confirm an arbitration award. Shortly thereafter, on September 24, 2024, Petitioners requested personal service of the pleadings upon Respondent at its last known address, 111 Town Square Place, Suite 1203, Jersey City, New Jersey 07310 (the “Jersey City address”). Petitioners’ process server attempted on four occasions to serve Respondent personally at the Jersey City address. A copy of the affidavit of due diligence for attempted service on Respondent at the Jersey City address is annexed hereto as Exhibit A. Respondent confirmed its place of business at the Jersey City address; per the affirmation of due diligence, “the owner of the entity... stated the offices are located at 111 Town Square Place.” See Ex. A. Furthermore, Petitioners’ process server contacted Respondent’s owner, who arranged a meeting time for service on October 16, 2024, at the Jersey City address, however, Respondent’s owner did not appear for the arranged meeting time. See Ex. A.

On November 7, 2024, Petitioners requested service of the pleadings on Robert Knight, President, at his last known address, 126 Memorial Parkway, Bloomfield, New Jersey 07003 (the “Bloomfield address”). Petitioners’ process server attempted on six occasions to serve Robert Knight personally at the Bloomfield address, however, there was no answer. On December 13, 2024, the process server advised that it was unable to serve the pleadings on Robert Knight at the Bloomfield address. A copy of the affidavit of due diligence for attempted service on Respondent at the Bloomfield address is annexed hereto as Exhibit B. On the same day, Petitioners requested service of the pleadings on Sharett Davies, CEO, at her last known address, 212 E 25th Street, Paterson, New Jersey 07514 (the “Paterson address”). On December 24, 2024, Petitioners learned that Petitioners’ process server attempted on one occasion to serve Sharett Davies personally at the Paterson address, however, a tenant advised that Ms. Davies owned the property but did not reside at said address. A copy of the affidavit of due diligence for attempted service on Respondent at the Paterson address is annexed hereto as Exhibit C. Petitioners have been unable to locate an alternate address for Sharett Davies at which to attempt personal service.

Petitioners Should Be Granted Leave to Serve Respondent via “Nail and Mail” Service Pursuant to N.Y. CPLR § 308(4)

Petitioners have exercised diligence in their attempts to serve the pleadings on Respondent at its last known business address, its President’s last known address, and its CEO’s last known address. Petitioners have attempted to personally serve Respondent at all addresses and on all parties listed on Respondent’s status report filed with the New Jersey Department of State, a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit D.

N.Y. CPLR § 308(4) states that, when personal service cannot be met with due diligence, service may be effectuated “by affixing the summons to the door of either the actual place of business, dwelling place or usual place of abode within the state of the person to be served and by either mailing the summons to such person at his or her last known residence or by mailing the summons by first class mail to the person to be served at his or her actual place of business...” N.Y. CPLR § 308(4). Here, Petitioners seek leave to serve the Respondent c/o President Robert Knight, who is an agent of respondent authorized by statute to accept service for the corporation which he serves as President. Mr. Knight is the only individual associated with Respondent for whom Petitioners have located viable addresses. Given Mr. Knight’s history of evading service in this matter, Petitioners accordingly request leave to serve the pleadings on Respondent, care of President Robert Knight via “nail and mail” service at the Jersey City address and Bloomfield address pursuant to N.Y. CPLR § 308(4), and request an extension of time through January 30, 2025, to effectuate said service.

We sincerely thank the Court for its time and attention to this matter and apologize for any inconvenience to the Court caused by this delay in service.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Maura Moosnick

Application GRANTED IN PART. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m), “if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure [to serve a defendant within 90 days after the complaint is filed], the court must extend the time for service for an appropriate period.” Rule 4(m) also “authorizes the court to relieve a plaintiff of the consequences of an application of this subdivision even if there is no good cause shown.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) advisory committee’s note to 1993 amendments; see also Zapata v. City of New York, 502 F.3d 192, 196 (2d Cir. 2007). Here, “absences by [counsel’s] firm’s staff for the holiday season result[ing] in an inadvertent oversight of the December 19, 2024 deadline to serve process on Respondent,” ECF No. 8 at 1, does not establish good cause, see Oyewole v. Ora, 291 F. Supp. 3d 422, 430 (S.D.N.Y. 2018) (“A ‘delay in service resulting from the mere inadvertence, neglect, or mistake of a litigant’s attorney does not constitute good cause.’”) (quoting George v. Prof’l Disposables Int’l, Inc., 221 F. Supp. 3d 428, 433 (S.D.N.Y. 2016)), aff’d, 776 F. App’x 42 (2d Cir. 2019). However, because this is Petitioners’ first request to extend the time to effect service, the Court exercises its discretion to extend that time, nunc pro tunc, to January 30, 2025.

Petitioners’ request to serve Respondent, a corporation, by “nail and mail” service is denied. Rule 4(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure permits service according to, inter alia, “the state where the district court is located or where service is made[.]” Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(e)(1). “[I]t is well established that the ‘nail-and-mail’ provision under N.Y. C.P.L.R. § 308(4) applies ‘only to defendants who are natural persons and cannot be used to serve a corporation.’” Joe Hand Promotions, Inc. v. Necessary Studios, Inc., No. 21 Civ. 5551 (LDH) (RER), 2022 WL 18858972, at *3 n.2 (E.D.N.Y. Dec. 5, 2022) (quoting Retrospective Goods, LLC v. T & M Invs. Int’l, LLC, No. 20 Civ. 6201 (AMD) (RER), 2022 WL 2161935, at *3 (E.D.N.Y. May 20, 2022)). “[A]ffix-and-mail’ service, embodied in CPLR 308, is a means of serving individuals, not a corporation CPLR 311 governs service on corporations and does not permit ‘affix-and-mail,’ even when the service on the corporation is being effectuated through one of its officers.” Nesterov v. Kvadro S. Corp., No. 18 Civ. 7200 (MKB) (SJB), 2021 WL 1236029, at *3 (E.D.N.Y. Mar. 11, 2021) (emphasis added) (cleaned up), report and recommendation adopted, 2021 WL 1238707 (E.D.N.Y. Apr. 2, 2021).

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate ECF No. 8.
